

This is unacceptable. Kids can not and should not be exposed to additional vulgar language or sexual content on TV. The current rules are loose enough. I strongly protest any change in the decency standards on TV that would allow more vulgar themes and language.

Further more you as a body should be ashamed of yourself. The reasoning you put forth to loosen the rules is because you have a backlog of complaints. In other words you don't want to do the work you were hired to do, so let's just loosen the rules to make your job easier... Shame on you.

Sincerely

Shaun Buck
